SOUTH-CAROLINA.

The PRESENTMENTS of the grand jurors for the body of this province, at a court of general ſeſſions of the peace, oyer and terminer, aſſize and general goal delivery, begun and holden in Charles-Town, Monday the 19th day of October, in the year of our Lord one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-ſeven.

I.

WE preſent as a very great grievance, the want of circuit or county courts being eſtabliſhed for the benefit and eaſe of the inhabitants of the back parts of this province.

II. We preſent as a great grievance, the want of a proper public goal, as the preſent is quite inſufficient.

III. We preſent as a grievance, the want of the province acts being reprinted, and properly digeſted under diſtinct heads.

IV. We preſent as a grievance, the neglect of the militia law, many pariſhes not muſtering, or done any patrole duty for many years paſt: We alſo complain of the neglect of not carrying arms to church, and other places of divine worſhip, and againſt the bad cuſtom of delivering their arms to negroes to keep, during divine ſervice.

V. We preſent as a grievance the want of a law to prevent the ſtoring of hemp in the heart of the town.

VI. We preſent as a great grievance, the want of a proper perſon to inſpect the meaſuring of wood in Charles-Town, and to prevent the foreſtalling thereof, which is ſo ſenſibly felt by its poor inhabitants.

VII. We preſent as a grievance, the general diſregard of the Lord's Day, and the magiſtrates and conſtables for not carrying into execution the laws for the due obſervance of it.

VIII. We preſent as a grievance, the want of a law to eſtabliſh a ferry between Stono and John's-Iſland, commonly called Stono Ferry.

IX. We preſent as a grievance, the want of a law for cleaning of New-Cut and Wappoo-Cut, the navigation at preſent being very dangerous, and the detention of boats, in the latter, is obvious to all concerned.

X. We preſent the commiſſioners for that part of the highway called Aſhley-River Road, leading from the plantation of William Elliott's eſtate to the old Quarter-Houſe, and alſo that part of the road leading into Gooſe-Creek Pariſh, as far as the plantation of John Erneſt Poyas, being totally neglected for many years.

XI. We preſent as a grievance, the want of a law to regulate the rates of wharfage in Charles-Town, as well as the ſcales and weights on ſaid warves, for want of which many hardſhips are ſuſtained by the trading and planting intereſts in this province: We alſo complain of the hardſhips maſters of veſſels lay under in this port, by being obliged to pay for packages, &c. ſtolen off the warves at the time of delivering their cargoes.

XII. We preſent as a grievance, the want of public ſchools for the education and inſtruction of the children of the poor inhabitants in the back parts of this province; as alſo places for divine worſhip, and recommend to the legiſlature every meaſure that may tend to the better order and regulation of thoſe parts.

XIII. We preſent as a grievance, that by far the greater part of the poor of this province, and many from the adjacent provinces, have, for thoſe many years paſt, centered in Charles-Town, to the great prejudice and expence of the inhabitants of ſaid town.

XIV. We preſent as a grievance, the bad practice of free negroes and mulattoes being ſuffered to paſs to and fro without any certificate or badge of their being free, by which means many run-away ſlaves are ſuffered to paſs as free.

XV. We preſent as a grievance, the watch of Charles-Town being inſufficient to guard the town, and recommend that their number and pay be encreaſed, whereby men of ſome repute and property may be induced to ſerve.

XVI. We preſent as a grievance, the cauſeways in this province being in general very bad, owing to their being made too narrow, and not high enough to prevent a ſpring tide from over-flowing them, which, in a ſhort time, renders them unpaſſable.

XVII. We preſent as a grievance, the want of lamps in this town.

XVIII. We preſent the commiſſioners of the fortifications for ſuffering the works to be neglected, as there is an annual ſum allowed to keep them in repair.

XIX. We preſent as a grievance, the want of more large public wells, now wanted in many parts of this town.

XX. We preſent as a grievance, the want of a fire-company to be eſtabliſhed by law, with a handſome gratuity for their ſervices.

XXI. We preſent Cornelius [illegible]r, and Mr. Witzer, both in Union-ſtreet, for keeping diſorderly houſes, cooking victuals for, and entertaining negroes, to the great hurt of the community in general. By information of James Henry Butler.

XXII. We preſent the henious and wicked cuſtom of curſing and ſwearing amongſt the negroes of this town, who paſs unpuniſhed, when a white labourer is obliged to pay one ſhilling ſterling for every oath. By information of James Henry Butler.

XXIII. We preſent the great evil of men being appointed to the office of conſtable, who are diſgrace thereto, and to the diſcontent of thoſe who endeavour to diſcharge their duty conſcientiouſly. By information of James Henry Butler.

XXIV. We recommend that the court do apply to the governor to have ſome proviſion made for the poor indigent perſons who were obliged to attend the preſent court as evidences.

XXV. We preſent as a grievance, the number of licences for retailing ſpirituous liquors in Charles-Town, not being limitted.

XXVI. We preſent as a grievance, that many perſons appointed as magiſtrates, have not qualified, but by their being ſo appointed, claim an exemption of all public duties.

XXVII. We preſent as a great grievance, that too little regard has been paid to the preſentments heretofore made by the Grand Jurors.

ON Monday the 2d day of November, 1767, being the firſt adjournment day of October ſeſſions, the preſentments of the grand jury were taken into conſideration, when the following orders were made thereon, viz.

1ſt, 2d, 3d, ORDERED, that theſe ſeveral preſentments be laid before the legiſlature.

4th. THE court recommends the firſt part of this preſentment to the particular notice of his excellency the governor, as Captain-general and commander in chief. The militia law of this province having made proviſion for obliging the inhabitants thereof to go properly armed to churches and other places of religious worſhip; the church-wardens of the ſeveral pariſhes are earneſtly exhorted and required to ſee that part of the law, which it is their duty to enforce, carried ſtrictly into execution.

The court can do nothing further relative to this preſentment, none of the offenders being particularized.

5th. THERE being a law to prevent the grievance here preſented, and no particular perſons being pointed out as guilty of a breach thereof, ORDERED, that this preſentment be quaſhed for want of preciſion.

6th. ORDERED, that this preſentment be laid before the legiſlature.

7th. It is earneſtly recommended to the magiſtrates, and given ſtrictly in charge to the conſtables in the pariſhes of St. Philip and St. Michael, Charles-Town, that they do reſpectively ſee the laws for the due obſervance of the Lord's day carried vigorouſly into execution.

8th and 9th. ORDERED, That theſe two preſentments be laid before the legiſlature.

10th. ORDERED, That this preſentment be quaſhed, for uncertainty and want of preciſion, no perſon or perſons being preſented by name.

11th, 12th, 13th, 14th, 15th, 16th, 17th, 18th, 19th and 20th. ORDERED, That theſe ſeveral preſentments be laid before the legiſlature.

21ſt. ORDERED, That proceſs do iſſue againſt Cornelius [illegible] and —— Whitzer, both of Union-ſtreet, to compel them to come in, plead to, and anſwer this preſentment. It is alſo ordered that the informant be bound over to proſecute and give evidence againſt the parties preſented.

22d. As the negro law directs that where negroes are guilty of any crime for which a white man is liable to be fined, they ſhall in ſuch caſe receive corporal puniſhment, the conſtables are ordered to uſe their utmoſt endeavours in reſtraining the henious and wicked cuſtom here preſented.

23d. THE court will pay all due notice to this preſentment, and conſidering the informant as one of the perſons meant by the grand jury, it is ORDERED, that James Henry Butler do ſerve no longer in the office of a conſtable.

24th. The court has paid and will pay all due regard to this recommendation.

25th. ORDERED, That this preſentment be laid before the legiſlature.

26th. ORDERED, That this preſentment be recommended to the particular notice of his excellency the governor, and his Majeſty's honourable council.

27th. THIS court always hath and ever will pay all due notice and regard to the preſentments of the grand juries. And it is ORDERED that copies of the preſentments at this preſent ſeſſions, together with the orders thereupon made, be laid before the three branches of the legiſlature; and alſo that the ſame be publiſhed in the ſeveral Gazettes of this province.

CRY aloud: Spare not: Liſt up thy voice like a trumpet: Oh that I had the lungs of Stentor! or, if I had the wings of a Seraph, I would croſs the wide Atlantick in a moment, and deliver a faithful meſſage to the dear, dear mother country.

Forbear, my good old Matron, any longer to give heed to the lies that are told you of your own children: As you would not forfeit that character of wiſdom, of equity and generoſity for which you have been for ages paſt ſo juſtly famed: As you would not be deceived to your own real ſubſtantial injury, if not ruin, which may heaven avert! ceaſe to regard the idle tattle, or rather malignant whiſpers of thoſe who have too long been endeavouring to impreſs your mind with unreaſonable jealouſies of your colonies.——They have told you, we know they have, that it is the intention of America to diſpiſe your conſtitutional authority, to break all connections with you, and to become independent: And when I conſider the character and ſtations of ſome of theſe defamers, I cannot wond[illegible] are diſpoſed to [illegible] their reports; but believe me, for [illegible] do it with ſafety, the colonies do love and honour you: You are the root from whence they ſprang: They venerate you as their parent: They are bound to you by the ties of blood: Provoke not your children to wrath leſt they be diſcouraged. While you treat them well, and ſurely they have a right to ſuch treatment, take my word for it, they never will abate their filial reſpect for you: Thoſe who tell you otherwiſe are vile calumniators: They are your worſt enemies, more inveterate than the haughty powers of France and Spain, and would make it their ſport to ſee an open rupture between you and us.—— Were we not eaſy and contented when you repealed the Stamp-Act? We were. But they had the inſolence to tell you otherwiſe; and reflect—Have you not too readily believed it? You have, my dear good mother, indeed you have; at leaſt ſuffer me to tell you I think you have; elſe, whence is it that we are threatened with correction? Nay, your enemies and ours are now exulting with hopes of laſhing us with whips and ſcorpions: An armed force to keep us in awe, is their conſtant talk. Is it poſſible, think you, that your own offſpring can bear to be told that e'er long they ſhall be ſlaves to ſycophants and tools!——wretches, whom we ever deſpiſed, but can never dread. When you repealed the Stamp-Act we were ſatisfied; content was in every heart, and every countenance was ſerene; and the tranquility was undiſturbed, 'till we were impudently told to our faces, what we are ſtow——ſtow to believe, that it was your fixed determination to enſlave us. Could we have believed it, what muſt have been our ſentiments of our mother! Suppoſe it to be falſe, how intolerable is the inſolence towards you principally, as well as towards us!

While Britain remains wiſe, ſhe will never take ſuch meaſures as will without doubt deſtroy herſelf: As long as ſhe is virtuous, ſhe will not injure her colonies upon the partial repreſentations of their pretended friends or open enemies: She who has ſo long been the ſcourge of tyrants, will never ſet up a tyranny: While ſhe preſides over the world, the umpire of nations, the ſupport of the liberties of mankind, ſhe will never attempt to enſlave her own children. Or, ſhould ſhe—the imagination is diſtreſſing—ſhould ſhe at ſome diſtant period—the inſtability of human things is ſuch! forgive, O ye pious anceſtors of Britain—ye guardians of their liberties and ours—O PITT, and all ye patriots of the preſent time, forgive the thought, and I will utter it——Should Britain at ſome diſtant period—become a tyrant, and forge chains for America—far diſtant muſt that period be——Would America ſubmit to her tyranny?—I need not expect an anſwer.—— Slavery, my dear mother, we cannot think of: We deteſt it. If this be a crime, remember we ſucked it with your milk. We boaſt of our freedom, and we have your example for it. We talk the language we have always heard you ſpeak, Britains will never be ſlaves. This is your own language, and your children have learnt of you—We muſt be free, and leave the fair inheritance to our children. Do you blame us? can you blame us, for imitating the noble example of your fathers and ours? What mean thoſe ſtreams of blood which they ſhed to tranſmit the bleſſing of freedom to you and to us? Will you part with that freedom? No, you will ever maintain it. Would you deprive us of it? You will not attempt it, till you ſhall be infatuated by the artful and malicious inſinuation of your enemies and ours. For God's ſake, be cautious of being deceived by them: They are deſigning men, artful enough to deceive the very elect: All we want is to ſtand before you upon a footing with them: We are ready to anſwer what they allledge againſt us: Be you the judge, and judge righteous judgment: Then will you ceaſe to meditate ſeverities againſt thoſe, whoſe affection for you is natural, and if it be not your own fault, will be as laſting as your exiſtence.

BRITANNUS AMERICANUS.

From the BOSTON GAZETTE, October 22.

I FIND by the laſt papers the following paragraph under the New-York head, The votes that came by the packet of the aſſembly of New-York, gave very great ſatisfaction, and the people in general were glad to hear they had ſo far agreed to furniſh the troops as was intended by parliament, many of which are to be tranſported to Ireland. The perſon who inſerted this piece of news I ſuppoſe intended to have the reader believe that the aſſembly of New-York had complied with what is called the billeting act, as far as was expected of them by the parliament; and that if they had ſo done, more troops would have been ſent to America than are now to be expected; for why elſe are many of them to be transported to Ireland? The conduct of New-York in this critical affair may be of very great consequence to the reſt of the colonies; and therefore it ſhould not be given to us in ſuch dark hints. I very much queſtion whether New-York has yet complied with the act, as ſeems to have been inſiſted upon: If I am miſtaken, it is eaſy for you to make the matter certain, and I wiſh you would get the beſt intelligence from New-York as ſoon as may be: That they have and are always ready to grant their Soverign neceſſary aid, I make no doubt of; and I ſhall be very glad if the manner of their furniſhing the troops is agreeable to what the parliament intended; provided it be alſo with their own free conſent, and without fear or conſtraint—in ſuch caſe there never need to be any difference between the Mother Country and America on this head; but if New-York has conceded that the parliament have a right to preſcribe law to them in the caſe, to leave them only in a manner an executive power, or rather to conſtitute them ſuch, how agreeable ſoever their conceſſion may be to the intention of the parliament, they have altogether receded from their firſt principles; of which the New-York news-writer has left us altogether uncertain.

Yours, A. B.

RACKED by the moſt excruciating bodily pain; inſulted under this affliction, by his enemies, and the enemies of his country; deſerted and betrayed by his pretended friends; his true ones not permitted to ſerve and defend him.

Can any ſituation be imagined more ſhocking to humanity.—Yet this is the caſe of a late Right Honourable Gentleman, and now truly Noble Lord; a man that procured for his country a greater ſeries of ſucceſſes than any other nation was ever bleſſed with, her enemies themſelves being judges, in a kingdom too, whoſe inhabitants ſeven years ago were as much renowned through the world for their juſtice and generoſity as for their bravery and courage.—Tantum Tempora mutantur. So much are the people exalted by a generous guide, and abuſed by ſelf-intereſted leaders.

SEPTEMBER 16. Yeſterday morning ſome diſpatches arrived in town from the Lords Juſtices of Ireland, which were immediately carried to the Secretary of State's office.

We hear that there will ſoon be a promotion of general officers on the Irish eſtabliſhment.

NEW-YORK, OCTOBER 19.

On the 4th inſtant, his excellency Sir Henry Moore, bart. governor of this colony, iſſued a proclamation, to notify his Majeſty's repeal of two acts of aſſembly of this colony, paſſed in the year 1766, one for furniſhing the barracks in this colony, and the other for erecting a new county by the name of Cumberland.

Sunday the 13th inſtant, the Eagle Tranſport, Captain Markham, ſailed for Europe with the returned companies of the royal train of artillery, exchanged for thoſe lately arrived here in that ſhip.

BOSTON, OCTOBER 19.

By private intelligence in the laſt ſhips from London, it is intimated, that the K— had declared that G—— G—— ſhould never hereafter ſuſtain any public poſt during his reign:—That the Right Hon. the Earl of C——m, being unable to ſupport the burdens of his office, by reaſon of his great infirmity of body, which daily increaſed upon him, had made a general reſignation of the ſeveral departments of government wherein he was concerned; and that his M——— had been pleaſed to accept of ſuch reſignation: That ſome diſpute having ariſe between the Lords of Trade and Board of Admiralty, reſpecting the extent of the powers of the American Board of Cuſtoms, no commiſſions were made out for that department, and it is thought no appointments would be made thereto until the ſitting of a new parliament.

We are aſſured that on the 20th of July, the wiſe and good adminiſtration ſo long wiſh'd for, was nearer than ever to a final eſtabliſhment; and that all preliminaries were adjuſted; particularly, that the Right Hon. Mr. G———e ſhould have no place in the new ſettlement; that Lord C--b--n ſhould be in place—and that the arrangement ſhould on thoſe terms be left to the D— of G——, the Marquis of R———m, Lord Sh———n, General C——y, &c. to form without any other reſtrictions; and that we had the faireſt proſpect of an adminiſtration truly patriotic, viz.

Duke of G———n to be Preſident of the Council.
Marquis of R———m to be at the head of the Treaſury.
Secretary C——y, to be Secretary of State.
Lord S———, Privy Seal.
Sir E——d H———ke, to continue firſt Lord of the Admiralty.

But that on the 24th (the day fixed for its taking place) the Duke of B——d, and ſome of his party, making the firſt propoſal in the council, viz. that the late acts paſſed reſpecting the colonies ſhould be ſtrictly executed, broke up the negotiation—there being a moſt violent oppoſition——ſo that every thing remained unſettled.

Laſt Thurſday, between 10 and 11 o'clock in the forenoon, a ſmall ſhock of an Earthquake was very ſenſibly felt by many perſons in this and the neighbouring towns:—We hear the ſhock was very conſiderable at Piſcataqua and the parts Eaſtward about the ſame time.

The following is extracted from a letter wrote by a gentleman of public Character, dated Cork, July 7, 1767, which came by a veſſel juſt arrived.

"I hope the ſituation of your American provinces is more comfortable ſince the repeal of the fatal ſtamp-act, and do earneſtly pray that both religious and civil liberty may be eſtabliſhed more firmly among you.

"By the public papers from America, I find the province of New-York have had a new attempt, and indeed I believe it is intended for all the provinces, to quarter, without the conſent of the reſpective aſſemblies, ſoldiers upon them. Theſe impoſitions, I fear, will occaſion great diſturbances; but I honour the ſpirited, though very modeſt manner in which the aſſembly of New-York anſwered the Governor upon the occaſion. By the ſame papers I find the aſſembly of Pennſylvania have ſubmitted. I'm ſurpriſed the aſſemblies and provinces do not act in concert and unanimity. If once the government of England can bring over ſome, I doubt it will not ſtop till the whole are bro't over.

"We have a greater ſcarcity of proviſions of all ſorts this ſeaſon in Ireland, than has been felt for 30 years paſt, inſomuch that unleſs we are ſupplied from America our poor will be in great danger of ſuffering dreadfully; our laſt crop greatly failed, whereas we find you had a plentiful one, we have got a few cargoes of flour and wheat, but expect more.

"We are apprehenſive that we ſhall be ſaddled with a part of the crown debts next ſeſſion of parliament, which is to meet next winter, contrary to our conſtitutional rights, which will be very irkſome to us, and muſt be done, if ever done, by bribery and corruption in our parliament.

Extract of a Letter from London, June 17.

"Yeſterday the bills for ſuſpending the legiſlation of New-York until ſaid colony ſhall comply with the mutiny act, and for eſtabliſhing a Board of Cuſtoms, were read the ſecond time in the Houſe of Lords; and the bill of commercial taxation paſſed in the ſame houſe to be engroſſed.

"With reſpect to providing for the troops, no oppoſition is ſo reaſonable, becauſe none can be ſo effectual, as that which procured the repeal of the ſtamp-act, viz. the general engagement to import no goods from England, till ſuch a taxation be removed or diſclaimed by the repeal of the act:—And the efficacy of this mode of oppoſition could never be more aſſuredly depended upon than at preſent; becauſe that the manufacturers can but barely ſupport themſelves under the preſent ſcarcity of proviſions, and ſlackneſs of trade, which is ſo great a diſcouragement, that although wool never was dearer in England than now, yet cloths are twenty per cent. cheaper than ever was known; ſo that ſhould your demand ceaſe for a year or two, the utmoſt you can deſire would be effected for you here, without any unconſtitutional oppoſition on your parts. This method of proceeding will have this good effect beſides, viz. that you will have a good price for all your dead ſtock (by interchange with one another for aſſortment) which would always have been unprofitable——you would collect your debts, and bring your debts in England to a cloſe, before you run any further into debt; ſo that the ballance would hereby be brought about in your favour, which without ſome ſuch method, muſt be for ever againſt you."

We hear that a woman near Briſtol, was lately delivered of three boys, which were baptized on the 20th ult. by the names of Abraham, Iſaac and Jacob.

We hear that governor Moore, of New-York, is ſuperceded in his government by his excellency Colonel Clarke.

OCTOBER 26. The freeholders and other inhabitants of this town are notified to meet at Faneuil-Hall on Wedneſday next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, in order, among other things, to conſider and agree upon ſome effectual meaſures to promote induſtry, œconomy, and manufactures, thereby to prevent the unneceſſary importation of European commodities, which threaten the country with poverty and ruin:—That the mind and reſolution of the town may be taken with reſpect to the expediency of an humble requeſt to his excellency the governor, that he will conveen the general aſſembly as ſoon as may be; and the giving proper inſtructions to the repreſentatives of the town for their conduct at this very critical conjuncture of our publick affairs:—Alſo to conſider of ſome meaſures for employing the poor of the town of Boſton, by reviving the linen manufacture, and in ſuch other ways as ſhall be thought moſt beneficial.

ROSEAU, (in Dominica) OCTOBER 10.

We are credibly informed that there are now in this iſland upwards of three thouſand white inhabitants, and fifteen thouſand negroes; which muſt appear very numerous to one who conſiders the uncultivated ſtate in which the greateſt part of this valuable iſland at preſent is. And it certainly muſt give pleaſure to all its well wiſhers to obſerve the daily increaſe of ſettlers, the high advanced price for which lands ſell, and the great ſpirit that buildings are now carrying on with in the ſeveral towns; as it fully evinces its great importance as a trading colony, and the value it will ſoon be of to the crown. There are now upwards of twenty houſes building in the town of Roſeau only.

A man of war is arrived from France at Martinico and Gaudaloupe, by which a Royal edict is come out directed to the governors of the French Weſt-India iſlands, forbidding (on account ſaid iſlands being much diſtreſſed in having their ſpecie carrried off) all Engliſh veſſels from entering any of their ports after the 31ſt day of December next, either to bring in or carry off any commodity whatever; lumber and molaſſes not being excepted.

Mr. CROUCH, From the Country.

Pleaſe inſert the few following lines, dedicated out of deference and eſteem, to the memory of the Rev. Mr. WILTON, which will oblige ſeveral of your country readers, and in particular. PHILAGATHUS.

WHO can grieve too much, what time ſhall end,
Our mourning for ſo dear a friend?
Let Carolina weep, and put her ſables on,
For pious WILTON; early dead and gone.
His death to no one private loſs confin'd,
Demands the general ſorrow of mankind.
Permit his rural friends, with grief ſincere,
To join you in town, and drop a ſilent tear.
O cruel death, ſo ſoon to ſnatch away,
And change that body to its former clay.
Too good, alas! for us poor mortals here,
He's call'd from earthly to a heavenly ſphere,
Where he no doubt, with glorious ſaints above,
Is now partaking of his Father's love.
Then weep no more, the loſt of ſuch a friend,
Whoſe life and death directs us to our end.
And ſince he's gone, be this our care and ſtrife,
Like him to live, like him to die, like him to end our life.

The Grievances complained of, in your Excellency's Speech, relative to the back Settlers, require our ſerious and immediate Attention, and your Excellency may be aſſured, that we ſhall take the ſame into Conſideration, as ſoon as poſſible; and for that Purpoſe, we humbly deſire, that you will be pleaſed to communicate to this Houſe, ſuch Papers and Informations concerning thoſe Tranſactions, as have come to your Excellency's Hands.

When the Public Accounts are laid before this Houſe, your Excellency may depend on our making due Proviſion for their Diſcharge.

Your Excellency's Recommendation, regarding the Laws which are already expired, or nearly expiring, and the Revival & Continuance of ſuch as may appear neceſſary and advantageous to the Publick, ſhall meet with that Conſideration from the Houſe, a Matter of ſuch Conſequence merits.

By order of the Houſe,

CHARLES-TOWN, NOVEMBER 17.

BY a Letter of the 22d ult. from Dominica to a Gentleman here, the Account of the French having received a Royal Edict at Guadaloupe and Martinico for preventing any Engliſh Ship from entering the Ports of thoſe Iſlands, after the 31ſt of next Month, is confirmed; and likewiſe that a Proclamation had been iſſued, commanding all his Britannick Majeſty's Subjects to depart thoſe Iſlands by the ſame Day; the Letter concludes, We ſhall not be able to get any of your new Crop to that Market, ſuppoſing it could arrive before the Edict takes Place, as the French would take Advantage of the Edict, and order away your Veſſels without your Effects.
